

INSTITUTE FOR CRITICAL SOCIAL THEORY

2nd Annual Conference

Göztepe Campus
Marmara University,
Kadiköy, Istanbul

July 8:

10:00-10:30am - Check in

- İşletme Fakültesi (Faculty of Business Administration) 1st Floor (map below)

10:30-11:30am - Opening Ceremony

11:30-11:45 – Break

11:45-13:15 - Session 1A. Room C101.

Power, Politics, and the Theocratic, moderated by Dustin J. Byrd

“Russia as the Red Katechon Or Russian-style Post-secularism - The Synergies of a Far-Right Theopolitical Figure as an Empty Signifier and a Quasi-Religious Theomachist Archive”

Grigori Khislavski – University of Erfurt

“Beyond the Secular State: Abrahamic Traditions and the Ethics of Global Governance”

Deina Abdelkader – University of Massachusetts Lowell

“Beyond Compliance: Rethinking Power, Restraint, and Civilian Governance in an Age of Global Uncertainty”

Maria Kortam – Beyond Compliance Consortium – University of York

11:45-13:15 - Session 1B. Room C102.

Post-Colonialism, Post-Islamism, and Genocide, moderated by Sharmin Sadequee

“Expanding Post-colonial State Theory in Environmental Governance: Capital, Nature, and Subaltern Contestation in Pakistan”

Junaid Babar – University of Cambridge

“Progressive Post-Islamism as an Alternative Modernity”
Nazlı Gül Deniz Claeys – University of Alberta

“Decolonizing Trauma in a Time of Global Uncertainty: Religion, Memory, and Palestinian Resilience under Genocide”
Hasan Obaid – Vision Center for Political Development-Istanbul

13:15-4:15 - Lunch Break

14:15-15:45 - Session 2A. Room C101

Religion, Globalization, and the Problem of Artificial Intelligence, moderated by Naser Ghobadzadeh

“Religion and the Temptation of Globalization: Brazilian Pentecostal Missionaries in Romania”
Laurentiu Tanase – Bucharest University/ICST

“Artificial Intelligence: A New God or a New Tool on the Path to God – Global and Ukrainian Cases”

Yaroslav Yuvsechko – Ukrainian Association of Researchers of Religion

“Signs, Symbols, and Horizons”

Martha Raquel Gonzales – Institute for Critical Social Theory

14:15-15:45 - Session 2B. Room C102

Critical Theory and the Arts, moderated by Fatma Kaya

“Ludomusicology, Popular Concerts, and Critical Theory”
Aivaras Ivanaukas – Vilnius University

“The Shit of the Composer: Compositional Ethics in the Age of Immediacy”
James Waide – Royal Northern College of Music

“Decolonial Resistance in an Age of Monsters: Reclaiming Sacred Epistemologies from Western Fiction through Muhammad Iqbal’s Khudi and Sufi Tawīl” (ONLINE)
Siraj Shehbaz – Lincoln University College

15:45-16 - Break

16-17 - Plenary Address – Seyed Javad Miri – Room C102

17 - Adjourn

Excursion: 19:00 – Mevlevi Sufi Sema at Hodjapasha Culture Center \(Optional\).
For this excursion, you need to reserve your tickets through the link above.

July 9:

10-10:30 - Check in (Faculty of Business Administration)

10:30-12:00 - Session 3A. Room C101.

Secularism, Race, and the Politics of Islamophobia

Sharmin Sadequee – Agnes Scott College

Dustin J. Byrd – The University of Olivet/ICST

Khaled al-Qazzaz – Institute for Religious and Socio-Political Studies

10:30-12:00 - Session 3B. Room C102.

Decolonizing Critical Theory:

Epistemologies of Crisis from Muslim World and the Global South

Ramazan Aras – Ibn Haldun University

Heba Raouf Ezzat – Ibn Haldun University

Alev Erkilet – Ibn Haldun University

Tesnim Khriji Chirchi – Ibn Haldun University

12-12:15 - Break

12:15-13:45 - Session 4A. Room C101.

Critical Theory, Identity, and the Critique of Society, moderated by

Dustin J. Byrd

“Mediated Being and Non-Identical Thought”

Domas Junelis – Vilnius University

“Beyond Morbid Symptoms”

Lauren Langman – Loyola University

“Understanding the Authoritarianism of Donald Trump: A Psycho-Political Analysis

Dustin J. Byrd – The University of Olivet

12:15-13:45 – Session 4B. Room C102.

Exclusivity, The Great Replacement, and Predictive Theory, moderated
by Martha Raquel Gonzales

*Humanity-Orientation as Critical Theory: Inhabiting the Human Interval Beyond Exclusionist
Paradigms” (ONLINE)*

Mohammad Omar Farooq – United International University – Bangladesh

“Critical Social Theory and debunking the Great Replacement narrative for understanding the Plight and Securing Sustainable Repatriation of the Rohingya”

Mahbubur Rahman – North South University – Bangladesh

“Thinking with Ibn Khaldun about the Future: Islamic History and Predictive Theory”

Adnan Husain – Queen’s University

13:45-14:45 - Lunch

14:45-16:15 - Session 5A. Room C101.

War and Imperialism: Iran in Focus, moderated by Dustin J. Byrd

“Imperial Ignorance and the Production of Unknowing: An Ethnographic Account of the Minab School Massacre”

Helyeh Doutaghi – University of Tehran

“The Making of Religious Sovereignty: Critical Reflections on Ideology, Hegemony, and Political Theology in Post-Revolutionary Iran”

Naser Ghobadzadeh – American University in Bulgaria

“Revisiting the Concept of Imperialism based on Erich Fromm’s Social Theory of Necrophilia”

Seyed Javad Miri – Institute for Humanities and Cultural Studies-Tehran/ICST

14:45-16:15 - Session 5B. Room C102.

Past and Future Challenges, moderated by Mahbubur Rahman

“We know, but we do not know Change: Disembodied Knowledge and the Future of the Humanities”

Fatma Kaya – Dicle University

Decolonizing Knowledge Production in Islamic Finance: Failure, Continuity, or Transformation

Murat Yaş – Marmara University – Institute of Islamic Economic and Finance

Al-Ishtibak: Toward a Theory of the Second Breach (Online)

Ali Harfouch – Independent Scholar

16:15 - Adjourn

20:30: Excursion: Bosphorus Dinner Cruise and Turkish Night Show \(Optional\)

For this excursion, you need to reserve your tickets through the link above.

July 10: Istanbul Excursions

Meeting point & Time: TBA

Morning Tour: Hagia Sophia, Blue Mosque, Hagia Eirene Church, Topkapi Palace, Hippodrome, Basilica Cistern.

- Please be aware that some venues have entrance fees while others are free.

Lunch (Independent)

Afternoon Tour: Turkish and Islamic Art Museum and/or Istanbul Archaeological Museums, Grand Bazaar, Suleymaniye and Fatih Mosques (just suggestions).

Map of Marmara University Campus:

- 1) In red: İştme Fakültesi (Business Faculty Building)

